ARTICLE VI
CORPORATE PURPOSES AND POWERS

The purposes for which the corporation is formed, and the business and objects to be carried on and promoted by it are as follows:

- (a) To share the interaction of Hawaiian culture and science.
- (b) To research and educate the public on the interaction of Hawaiian culture and science and to inspire exploration.
- (c) To further educational opportunities for the children of Hawai'i in the fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics.
- (d) To be organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding section of any future Internal Revenue law.

The corporation shall have all powers, rights, privileges and immunities permitted or provided to nonprofit corporations under Chapter 414D, Hawai'i Revised Statutes, as amended, and all other applicable laws.

ARTICLE VII

LIMITATION ON CORPORATE ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary herein contained, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

ARTICLE VIII

NONPROFIT STATUS

The corporation is not organized for profit and will not issue any stock and will pay no dividends. No part of the assets, income or earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors or officers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to make reimbursements for expenses actually incurred in service to the corporation and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

(1) No director of the corporation shall be personally liable to the corporation for any monetary loss or damage suffered by it on account of a breach of any of the director's duties to the corporation; provided, however, that such director's liability shall not be limited for: (a) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation; (b) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (c) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal economic benefit; or (d) any violations of the Hawai'i Nonprofit Corporations Act relating to director conflicts of interest, loans to or guaranties for directors and officers, or director liability for unlawful distributions.

(2) No person who serves as a director or officer of the corporation without remuneration or expectation of remuneration shall be liable for damage, injury or loss caused by or resulting from the director or officer's performance of, or failure to perform duties of, the position to which the person was elected or appointed, unless the director or officer was grossly negligent in the performance of, or failure to perform, such duties. For purposes of this section, remuneration does not include payment or reimbursement of reasonable expenses or the provision of indemnification or insurance for actions as a director or officer.

(3) The limitation of liability provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this Article shall be cumulative and not exclusive, and shall be independent of and in addition to each other and any other limitation of liability provided by law or in any other agreement. Any repeal, amendment or modification of this Article shall not affect the limitation of liability provided in this Article for any acts or omissions occurring prior to such repeal, amendment or modification. The limitation of liability provided for in this Article shall continue as to any person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, personal representatives, executors and administrators.

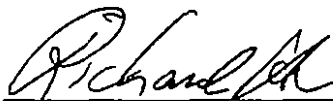

ARTICLE X

DISSOLUTION

If the corporation shall cease to exist or shall be dissolved, all property and assets of the corporation of every kind, after payment, or making provision for the payment, of its just debts and liabilities shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or any successor provision thereto) or to one or more corporations, associations or other organizations that are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or any successor provision thereto).

The undersigned hereby certifies that the undersigned has read the foregoing statements and that the same are true and correct.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned has executed these presents this 31 day of March, 2016.
